THE APPROACH, LAND AND LOCALITY:

THE APPROACH:

The property is approached along a quiet lane (from the A40 about 2 miles away), then via a stone surfaced driveway that turns off the lane and culminates at the residence, where there is a large gravelled parking and turning area.

THE LAND AND GARDENS:

We are informed that the property amounts to approximately 8 Acres in total (to be confirmed), of which circa 6 acres comprise gently sloping pastureland and c.2 acres woodland belts and extensive grounds around the homestead buildings.

The gardens and grounds include a large expanse of raised lawn edged by a picturesque stone wall, with naturalised spring bulbs, herbaceous plants and a variety of specimen shrubs and trees as well as a framework of tall indigenous deciduous trees creating a lovely backdrop. There are other areas of lawn and various seating areas around this tranquil haven, taking advantage of the beautiful far reaching views, including the attractive paved terrace to the front of the residence looking far into the distance across miles of rolling countryside.

RIDING & WALKING & GENERAL LOCALITY:

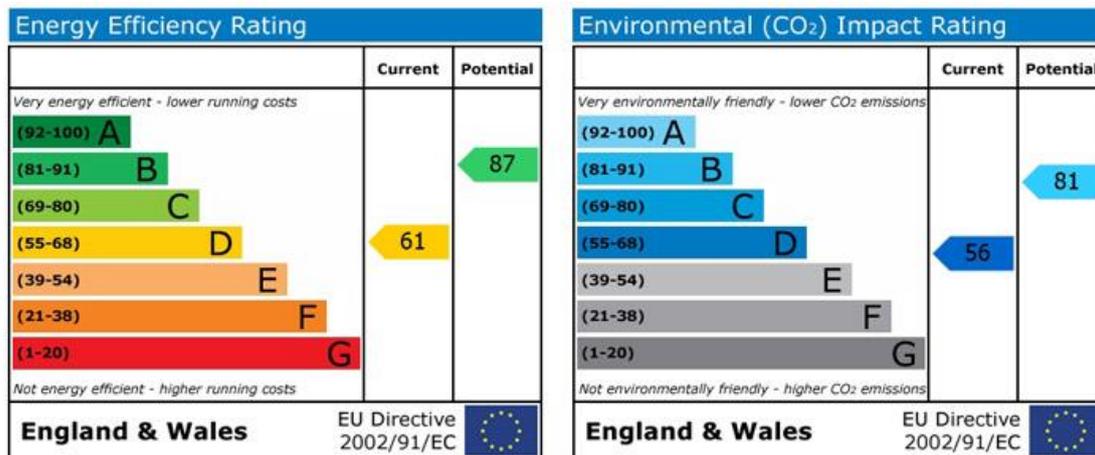

The property enjoys a private, rural setting in the heart of rolling countryside with Crychan Forest to the north and Halfway Forest to the east and south-east. Access is only a mile or so from the property. The scenic Forests offer miles and miles of waymarked trails, bridleways and old cattle droving routes, with hills, valleys and streams, providing superb off-road horse riding, walking, cycling, and bird-watching opportunities. The Epynt Way can be accessed from Crychan Forest, a 50-mile circular bridleway around the boundary of the Sennybridge army training area on Mynydd Epynt, with splendid views.

To the south the Brecon Beacons National Park is easily accessible – extending from Llandeilo in the west to Hay-on-Wye in the east, covering some 520 square miles, and incorporating the Black Mountain massif to the west, the Fforest Fawr, the Central Brecon Beacons, and the Black Mountains Range to the east. The scenery is diverse and spectacular, with high mountain peaks, open moorland, lakes, rivers and waterfalls, and historic castles at strategic points on the boundaries.

Access to the A40 trunk road is about 2 miles from the property, running along the northern boundary of the National Park and giving easy access across the region and a scenic route into England. The friendly old market town of Llandovery in the upper Towy Valley is 4½ miles south-westerly, with a selection of shops, supermarket, cafes, main banks, pubs, hotels, etc., as well as Norman Castle ruins, Heritage Centre, and primary school. The town's secondary school is closing later this year and students will attend a new school opening in Llandeilo in September 2016. There is also a public school, Llandovery College. The town is on the scenic Heart of Wales railway line (Swansea to Shrewsbury).

Historic Brecon is 19 miles easterly, the main town of the National Park, well known for its medieval cathedral and heritage centre, Christ College public school, Norman castle remains, Georgian architecture, narrow streets, and annual jazz festival. Llandeilo is 17 miles south-westerly, Llanwrtyd Wells 16 miles north-east, Builth Wells 29 miles north-east, and Carmarthen 32 miles south-west.
