THE LOCATION:

The property is delightfully situated in a small rural community near Talley’s ancient abbey, church and lakes. We understand that Talley started having a pop up shop on a Sunday morning in front of the former village pub in the village centre. This we are informed usually sells good quality meat, fruit and vegetables and pastries. Also the old blacksmiths on the main road has received planning permission for a tearoom and shop which will be an added attraction for the area. The church hall is used for community events, and the village primary school is about a mile from the property.

This is a beautiful location along a peaceful green valley with gentle hills all around and excellent walking, cycling and bird-watching opportunities.

Talley Abbey dates back to the 12th Century and was founded by the Welsh Prince, Rhys ap Gruffydd, and later became a monastery under the care of White Cannons (English Premonstratensians). Though the abbey became ruinous in the Middle Ages, the impressive tower and part of the cloister remain. The church (St. Michael’s) was rebuilt by the Williams family of nearby Edwinstford in 1773 (mainly from the ruins of the abbey) and still contains the original numbered pews. The abbey and church stand at the head of Talley Lakes – two beautiful lakes formed at the end of the Ice Age and a haven for wildlife (owned by the RSPB and managed by the Wildlife Trust). Between the two lakes is a tree covered motte – possibly once a Welsh fortification. (The name Talley derives from “Tallyllychau”, meaning Head of the Lakes.) Talley Woodlands are nearby with footpaths, bridleways, and hillside viewpoints to enjoy. The Woodlands are managed by Talley’s Community Association in conjunction with the Forestry Commission. The surrounding countryside is one of rolling green hills, forestry, meandering streams, scattered villages, and quiet country lanes, rich in beauty and wildlife – including red kites, curlews and buzzards.

Brechfa Forest is a few miles west of the property (well signposted from Llansawel), originally a royal hunting forest in the 6th Century, now one of the largest areas of Forestry Commission property in Wales, covering around 50 square miles of diverse countryside, with walks, trails for horse riding and mountain biking, as well as winding forest roads. It is the venue for a stage of the Rally of Great Britain.

Llandeilo is about 7 miles southerly, off the A40 – a small, historic town with distinctive shops, galleries, pubs, hotels, good restaurants, main post office, health centre, schools, churches, and railway station on the scenic Heart of Wales country line that runs over 121 miles from Swansea to Shrewsbury. Llandeilo dates back to the 13th Century and occupies an elevated position by the River Towy and the Black Mountain. The town was once the medieval capital of Carmarthenshire, but the development of Llandeilo really grew in the 18th Century as a market town and banking centre for cattle drovers. It once had corn and woollen mills as well as a tanning industry, and it is still an agricultural centre nowadays. The town retains its old world charm, with narrow streets, Georgian buildings, and an old single-span, stone bridge over the Towy, built in 1848.

Llandovery is 10 miles north-easterly from the property in the upper Towy Valley, surrounded by hills at the north-western edge of the National Park. There is a good selection of shops, a supermarket, doctor's and dentist's surgeries, hotels, cafes, restaurants, pubs, swimming pool, small hospital, a primary school, bus service, and a Heart of Wales railway station. The High Street is part of the A40, and the A483 can be accessed here. The town has a mix of Georgian and Victorian architecture, Norman Castle remains, a Heritage Centre and a well known public school (Llandovery College). The name Llandovery means "The Church Amidst The Waters" – since the river Towy is on one side of the valley, the river Bran is on the other, and the Y Bawddwr meanders through the town centre. The town was once a vital centre for cattle drovers en route to England, and the very first bank in Wales was established here ("The Bank of the Black Ox") to accommodate their money.

Lampeter is 12 miles north-westerly standing by the river Teifi at the southern reaches of the Cambrian Mountains, a small, rural town but well known because of its University of Wales campus, where the main building is around a quadrangle dating back to 1827 (although the original university was founded in 1822). Lampeter is the smallest university town in the UK. There is a Co-op supermarket and a Sainsburys supermarket, a selection of individual shops and businesses, post office, cafes, restaurants and pubs, doctors and dentists, primary and comprehensive schools, church, council offices, police station, and a leisure centre with swimming pool. Lampeter's summer events include a well known Food Festival. There are plenty of country walks round and about, and the wilder mountain landscapes are within easy reach of town.

Carmarthen is 18 miles south-westerly, the busy county town and commercial centre on the meandering Towy river, combining an old world charm of quaint narrow streets and traditional shops with bustling markets and modern shopping amenities including well known stores such as Marks & Spencer, Next, Debenhams, Curry's, Morrisons, Tesco, etc., as well as a multi-screen cinema, art galleries, theatre, leisure centre, swimming pool, university college, heritage centre, and a general hospital and county museum on the outskirts.

The town is served by good rail links through Swansea to Cardiff-Paddington, and main roads radiate out to all regions, including the A40, A48-M4 Link, A484 and A485. The ruins of a Roman Amphitheatre can still be seen, and the remains of a Norman castle built circa 1094 overlook the town and the river. The National Botanic Garden of Wales is east of Carmarthen (some 15 miles from the property), featuring the Great Glass House designed by Norman Foster.

The Coast is less than an hour's drive. To the north-west, magnificent Cardigan Bay is famous for porpoises, dolphins, seals, sea birds, beautiful beaches, and cliff top walks, with popular resorts such as Aberaeron and New Quay as well as secluded coves. To the south on Carmarthen Bay, the Millennium Coastal Park offers beaches, dunes, salt marshes, fens, woodland and leisure facilities, and Cefn Sidan Beach provides a vast, 7 mile expanse of peaceful sands and dunes. The Gower Peninsula is a little further, with a stunning coastline and beautiful unspoilt landscapes.
