THE LOCALITY:

The property is situated in a quiet rural community 1½ miles west of Salem village, a scenic area to the north of Llandeilo and the Towy Valley with gently rolling farm and pastureland and lovely vistas, served by a network of lanes linking hamlets and country villages. This region has opportunities for a number of outdoor leisure activities including walking, horse riding (many lanes are particularly wide with grass verges and in the agent's opinion are ideal for horse riders to hack out), cycling, bird-watching, fishing (with permits), canoeing, and golf, and there are numerous attractions to visit including country parks and gardens, historic castles, and the coast.

Llandeilo is 4 miles southerly, off the A40 a delightful small town in an elevated position on the western banks of the River Towy at the fringe of the Black Mountain in Brecon Beacons National Park. The town retains an old world charm with narrow streets and Georgian architecture, and provides good amenities including primary and secondary schools, distinctive independent shops, health centre etc. and also has a railway station is on the scenic Heart of Wales country line running over 121 miles from Swansea to Shrewsbury. The town was voted the best place to live in April 2022 by The Sunday Times.

Brecon Beacons National Park extends from Llandeilo in the west to Hay-on-Wye in the east, covering some 520 square miles, and incorporates the Black Mountain massif to the west, the Fforest Fawr, the Central Brecon Beacons and Black Mountains Range to the east. The scenery is spectacular and diverse and there are Castles at strategic points on the boundaries – at Hay-on-Wye, Brecon, Trecastle, Tretower, Crickhowell and Carreg Cennen (an impressive 14th Century castle 9 miles south-east of the property).
