The property is conveniently situated with one neighbouring property, 80 yards or so back from the A486 allowing for easy access to Ffairfach and Llandeilo which are 2 and 2.4 miles distant respectively. 'Bro Dinefwr' secondary school is in Ffairfach, there is also a primary school, railway station, a pub, a very large agricultural and equine store, a butcher's shop and a small village store. Further facilities can be found in the pretty town of Llandeilo just beyond Ffairfach.

Llandeilo is a small, historic town with distinctive shops, galleries, pubs, hotels, restaurants, main post office, health centre, schools, churches, and railway station on the scenic Heart of Wales country line that runs over 121 miles from Swansea to Shrewsbury. Llandeilo dates back to the 13th Century and occupies an elevated position by the River Towy and the Black Mountain. The area has many visitor attractions including the Dinefwr Estate with National Nature Reserve, an Historic house with 18th-century landscaped park, medieval deer park and Castle. Gelli Aur Country Park a short distance away, Aberglasney Gardens is only 6 miles away, and The National Botanic Garden of Wales is 11 miles distant.

The Brecon Beacons National Park extends from Llandeilo in the west to Hay-on-Wye in the east, covering some 520 square miles, and incorporating the Black Mountain massif to the west, the Fforest Fawr, the Central Brecon Beacons, and the Black Mountains Range to the east. The scenery is diverse and spectacular, with high mountain peaks, open moorland, lakes, rivers, waterfalls, and historic castles at strategic points on the boundaries.

Cross Hands is only 9 miles to the south and has excellent travel connections on the A48 and M4 link road. There are numerous stores such as ALDI, Leekes, Home Bargains, Wynnstay and a good selection of other retail outlets making this a useful shopping destination.

Carmarthen is 15 miles away, the busy county town and commercial centre on the meandering Towy river, combining an old world charm of quaint narrow streets and traditional shops with bustling markets and modern shopping amenities including well known stores such as Marks & Spencer, Next, Morrisons, Tesco, etc., as well as a multi-screen cinema, art galleries, theatre, leisure centre, swimming pool, university college, heritage centre, and a general hospital and county museum on the outskirts. The town is served by good rail links through Swansea to Cardiff-Paddington, and main roads radiate out to all regions, including the A40, A48-M4 Link, A484 and A485. The ruins of a Roman Amphitheatre can still be seen, and the remains of a Norman castle built circa 1094 overlook the town and the river.

The Coast is less than an hour's drive. To the north-west, magnificent Cardigan Bay is famous for porpoises, dolphins, seals, sea birds, beautiful beaches, and cliff top walks, with popular resorts such as Aberaeron and New Quay. There are also secluded coves dotted along the coastline. To the south on Carmarthen Bay, the Millennium Coastal Park offers beaches, dunes, salt marshes, fens, woodland and leisure facilities, and Cefn Sidan Beach provides a vast, 7 mile expanse of peaceful sands and dunes. The Gower Peninsula is a little further, with a stunning coastline and beautiful unspoilt landscapes.
